"Floods, drought, climate change, even war are all directly related to the way we are treating dirt."

DIRT!, The Movie, directed and produced by Bill Benenson and Gene Rosow, tells the story of Earth's most valuable and underappreciated source of fertility – from its miraculous beginning to its crippling degradation.

DIRT! – narrated by Jamie Lee Curtis – brings to life the environmental, economic, social and political impact that soil has.

DIRT! is simply a movie about dirt and it teaches how intimately linked humans are to dirt. The movie is a call to action.

"The only remedy for disconnecting people from the natural world is connecting them to it again."
